To KOSMO Club Members,

To keep our club functioning requires members:

To be willing and able to do things for the club and volunteer when asked to do things that are needed to have a mixer every week (such as the sign in table).

To participate in club functions and activities that you have been invited to.

To volunteer to become a member of the Board when nominations for the new board happens.

The monthly board meeting is open to attend by any club member so stop by at the next board meeting on January 7, 2026.

Let me know if you have any questions, comments, or suggestions in regards to how the club did for 2025.

Happy New Year!
John
