APRIL BIRTHDAYS

04/13 Bill Bryan
04/13 Barbara Briggs
04/27 James Carter
04/28 Kathy Francis

Note from John -

I want to share comments made by President Morris Sykes in the April 2005 newsletter.

Does anyone recall going to Phyllis's wine tasting party? What was her last name?

Does anyone recall who the three Board Members were that got married?

Did anyone go skydiving with Morris in Lexington and then go to Italy?

Let me know the answers if you do.

What Prez Morris said :

If you were at Phyllis' wine tasting party, you would already know it was wonderful like last year. The crowd played "Charades" and had a lot of fun, but they should have used the song, "Wedding Bells are Breaking Up that Old Gang of Mine." So far, four couples in our club are getting married this year. Three of them are board members. We will need a lot of new officers come election time. Campaigns should start July 4, just like the national election campaigns. We have started mailing the newsletters this year, and we'll refund those who paid a mailing fee. HOWEVER, you have to fill out a Roster Update. Starting July 1 they are the only people who will be getting a newsletter mailed to them. We will have our website up before that date, and you will be able to also get the newsletter if you have computer access. To assist me, I have asked Betty Dickenson to take the position of Ad Hoc Special Projects, and she has accepted. April birthday wishes go to Amanda Drier, Bill Bryan, Bonnie Broughton, Jan Johnsen, Jerry Mathews, Joan Duran, Joe Gordon, John Davis, Lynne Meador, and Trudy Myers. I need help and ideas. What kind of programs do you want? Send e-mail or a letter, 25 words or less per idea. How about going to Lexington with me and skydiving next month??? And then we'll go to Italy November 8. I have a flier with all the details. YOUR COWBOY REPORT FROM THE FLINT HILLS: They have started the annual burning of the prairie. Watching it at night is like seeing the Aurora Borealis.
